

Lectures – 15h

3rd Year Medical Program in English

Date	Lecturer: Prof. Jerzy Konstantynowicz MD, PhD (JK), Paweł Abramowicz MD, PhD (PA)	Time	Speaker	Location
Saturday 1st Dec 2018 09:00-17:00	1. Vitamin D metabolism and clinical significance of vitamin D deficits during growth. Some aspects of bone and mineral metabolism in infancy and childhood, including rickets.	09.00-09.45 1h	PA	University Library of the UWM Room 307
	2. Introduction to pediatrics. General issues and terms related to child care, ethical issues in pediatrics, diagnostic guidelines and therapeutic standards in modern pediatrics.	09.45-10.30 1h	JK
	Coffee break 15'
	3. History taking and physical examination in pediatrics: principles of proper physical examination in pediatric patients. Pediatric symptomatology / general semiotic in pediatrics and significance of chosen clinical signs and symptoms in children.	10.45-13.00 3h	JK
	Break 45'
Sunday 2nd Dec 2018 8.00-13:00	1. Puberty – physiology and clinical features; major health-related problems in adolescent medicine.	08:00-08.45 1h	JK	University Library of the UWM Room 307
	2. Most common metabolic disorders in childhood. Diagnostic approach to the inborn metabolic errors. Screening tests onto metabolic disorders in newborn and infants.	08.45-9.30 1h	PA
	Coffee break 15'
	3. Major nutritional problems during growth: Undernutrition, childhood obesity; eating disorders (anorexia nervosa, bulimia nervosa).	9:45-11:15 2h	JK
Coffee break 15'
4. Child abuse and neglect (Maltreated child syndrome). Fetal Alcohol Syndrome (FAS).	11.30-13:00 2h	PA		